

Tower Hamlets Arts & Music Education Service

Service Level Agreement for Music

September 2024 until July 2025

The Tower Hamlets Arts & Music Education Service (THAMES) is the lead organisation for the Music Education Hub for Tower Hamlets and the City of London and is funded by the Department for Education.

We provide high quality instrumental/vocal tuition with a free loan of instruments for pupils. We also offer a range of ensembles including instrument specific groups, Children's Choirs, a Big Band, Tower Hamlets Youth Orchestra, and an inclusive ensemble for disabled and non-disabled pupils. We offer an Awards Scheme for pupils with musical aptitude and offer a wide range of arts and music enrichment projects across all arts disciplines (dance, drama, film and media, music, and visual arts). These are delivered by numerous local and nationally recognised cultural partners (see our website) and most are offered to schools free of charge. All work delivered by THAMES supports the National Curriculum for Music and Art and the refreshed National Plan for Music Education (NPME).

To reflect this broad offer there is a small termly service charge. For just £100 per term schools have access to further support, resources, and advisory services (see Benefits).

Each school has an assigned THAMES Link Manager who can either talk with you on the phone or meet with you in school to discuss your music requirements for 2024-25.

See page 5 for full contact details.

In addition to contact time, some tutors will be paid for an extra 30 minutes each week (if they prepare, set up and pack away multiple instruments for whole class lessons e.g. strings, guitars, percussion). Tutors delivering curriculum music lessons will also be paid for some planning time, negotiated with schools in accordance with the number of lessons taught.

Your THAMES Link Manager will provide you with a projected budget for the music services you have requested for the academic year 2024-25.

As soon as you have agreed to the proposals you will need to purchase the THAMES SLA package for 2024-25 on the SLA Online system:

www.sla-online.co.uk

Teaching cannot commence until purchase has been made.
